

COMMODITY TRADING WEEK APAC

19-20 FEBRUARY 2025
MARINA BAY SANDS, SINGAPORE

OVERVIEW

CTW APAC RETURNS TO SINGAPORE IN 2025!

Commodity Trading Week – CTW – is a global phenomenon – taking place in Europe, America and Online since 2011. 2024 saw the highly successful and eagerly anticipated launch of the APAC edition, taking place in Singapore, in partnership with Enterprise Singapore and attracting over 800 participants – the “who’s who” of the regional, and global commodity trading community.

CTW APAC is now the largest and most significant multi commodity gathering in the APAC region – combining scale of audience with depth of content, across 8 co-located conferences, a shared networking and exhibition area, and sister events in Europe and the US.

With its largest and highest-level audience yet, featuring a range of new, cutting edge focus areas, a significantly expanded networking schedule, and a year round supporting online event calendar attracting many thousands of attendees – be sure to join the global commodity trading community at CTW APAC 2025!

WHAT'S NEW?

Seniority

The launching of the Commodity Leadership Forum - a dedicated invite-only, closed door C-suite and decision maker conference examining topics of the highest strategic importance provides sponsors with new opportunities to directly engage their final buyers.

Sustainability

Sitting alongside the Environmental Markets Forum, the Commodity Sustainability Forum allows for a deeper dive into a range of topics around decarbonisation, ESG and the path to NetZero significantly increasing attendance from across the commodities sustainability community.

Energy

With a 16 year track record in Europe and the US, we are delighted to bring Energy Trading Week APAC to sit as a track within CTW APAC in 2025. This will provide for deep dives into regional power and gas markets, the impact of storage and renewables, technologies, ETRM and much more.

China

As one of the worlds most important commodity markets, we will be exploring in depth all the factors influencing Chinas role as a buyer and supplier of commodities, and welcoming a significantly expanded speaker faculty and delegation from the country.

Networking

An expanded networking programme including a wide range of sponsorable pre and post event functions allows you to spend quality time, and build relationships with your highest value prospects.

Audience

Continued growth of the core audience from across the region - With an anticipated audience growth of at least 35% CTW APAC 2025 also promises participation from even more companies than ever before, increasing opportunities for our sponsor partners.
