

OVERVIEW

COMMODITY TRADING WEEK AMERICAS (CTWA) AND THE CO-LOCATED ENERGY TRADING WEEK NORTHEAST (ETWNE) TAKE A GIANT LEAP FORWARD IN 2026!

These twin events have become the leading multi-commodity gatherings, uniting the entire trading ecosystem to tackle the industry's most pressing challenges and emerging opportunities.

Following a highly successful 2025 edition, these combined events return to Stamford on June 17-18, 2026, bigger and more impactful than ever. With an expanded audience, enhanced content, and greater networking opportunities, 2026 will set a new benchmark for the Americas energy and commodities industries.

These co-located events will dive into the biggest topics driving commodity and energy markets. We will be looking at the impact of the tariffs one year on, the latest geopolitical landscape, risk management strategies, innovations in trading digitalization, and updates on the regulatory landscape. We will also discuss developments in trade finance, insights into commodity investment strategies and much more. There will be something for everyone - from senior leadership, front, middle and back office professionals to IT/digital transformation experts, legal/compliance teams and all others involved in the trade life-cycle.

Join over 750 of your industry peers at Commodity Trading Week Americas and ensure your place at the heart of the Americas commodity and energy trading communities.

WHAT'S NEW?

Scale

CTWA & ETWNE will return to Hilton Hotel Stamford, welcoming an even larger audience while maintaining the high-quality mix of trading firms and solution providers. This means more meaningful interactions, high-value meetings, and business opportunities. Attendees will represent all key areas of the trading organization, including trading, analysis, technology, data, operations, risk, compliance, and more.

Sponsor Opportunities

As a sponsor, you'll have more ways than ever to elevate your brand and engage with decision-makers. Expanded opportunities include a wider range of stand sizes, enhanced on-site branding, exclusive invite-only activities with top-tier prospects, pre- and post-event marketing, student workshops, focused forums and much more — all designed to maximise your visibility and impact.

Expanding the Agenda: Enhanced Focus on Key Areas

The 2026 editions of CTWA and ETWNE will build on the success of our 2025 offering, providing even deeper insights into the macro issues relevant across commodity sectors. We will be providing more perspectives into how technology is changing the way markets trade, with real-world case studies on how AI and other cutting edge tech are embedding themselves even more deeply into organizations.
